Resolved, That authority be given to Mr. Sachse to reproduce the Form of Prayer for fasting and prayer appointed by George III in December, 1776, on the breaking out of the Revolution in the American Colonies.—Extract from Minutes Am. Philo. Soc., February 18, 1898.

One hundred and fifty copies of this work have been printed, of which this is No.

PREFATORY NOTE.

IN the history of the early period of the American Revolution allusions are constantly found making mention of certain prayers read by loyal clergymen of the Established Church,—prayers which proved distasteful to the temper of their patriot hearers, and were used by the latter as an excuse for debarring the offending clergyman from his pulpit. Notable examples in our vicinity are the Rev. Mr. Currie and Rev. Mr. Barton of Pennsylvania, and Rev. Dr. Odell of New Jersey.

Current traditions also speak of special prayers for the pacification of the Colonies, ordered to be read both in England and America, by royal command, as soon as the advices from America showed that the Colonial uprising was organized and widespread.

Diligent search, however, failed to bring any such Form of Prayer to light, until recently a printed copy—found in the collection of the American Philosophical Society by the Librarian, Dr. I. Minis Hays—was brought to the notice of the writer. This copy appears to be unique, and has proved to be unknown to the various Churchmen, scholars and historians to whom it was shown.

From the text it will be seen that, although not specially stated on the title, the prayers were ordered by “His Majesty’s special command” for the express purpose of invoking divine assistance in “subduing his unhappy deluded Subjects in America now in open rebellion against the Crown.” The finding of this tractate is a new and interesting addition to both our Revolutionary and religious literature.

Answ. Nor the wicked approach to hurt us.

Priest. Lord hear our Prayer !

Answ. And let our cry come unto thee.

¶ These Two Collects to be used instead of the First Collect for Morning Prayer.

O Almighty God, who rulest over all the kingdoms of the earth, and on whose most gracious providence they depend evermore for preservation and prosperity ; Extend thine accustomed goodness to the people of this land, who looking up to thee as the supreme author of all blessings, and then sure safeguard and mighty deliverer in all dangers and difficulties, do now implore thy watchful care and protection ; beseeching thee to guide them continually with thy counsel, to strengthen them with thy powerful arm, and to crown with success their necessary endeavours in defeating the unjust attempts of their rebellious fellow-subjects against the rights of our Sovereign, and the lawful authority of the legislature of these kingdoms. Grant this, O merciful Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

O Lord God of our salvation, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, of good and evil, and without whose aid the wisest counsels of frail men, men, and the multitude of an host, and all the instruments of war are but weak and vain; incline thine ear, we pray thee, to the earnest and devout supplications of thy servants, who, not confiding in the splendour of any thing that is great, or the stability of any thing that is strong here below, do most humbly flee, O Lord, unto thee for succour, and put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. Be thou to us a tower of defence against the assaults of our enemies, our shield and buckler in the day of battle, and so bless the arms of our gracious Sovereign, in the maintenance of His just and lawful rights, and prosper His endeavours to restore tranquillity among His unhappy deluded subjects in America, now in open rebellion against His Crown, in defiance of all subordination and legal government, that we being preserved by thy help and goodness from all perils and disasters, and made happily triumphant over all the disturbers of our peace, may joyfully laud and magnify thy glorious Name; and serve thee from generation to generation in all godliness and quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the second and third Collects at Morning Prayer: And the Litany.

¶ After the Prayer in the End of the Litany [We humbly beseech thee, &c.] shall these following be added:

O Lord,

The Litany.

O Lord, we beseech thee, mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee: that they, whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen

¶ Then the People shall say this that followeth, after the Minister.

TURN thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, Be favourable to thy people, Who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, Full of compassion, Long-suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, And in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

O Lord most good and powerful, we thy sinful people, here assembled before thee, do acknowledge it thine unspeakable mercy, that for our manifold and heinous provocations we are not utterly consumed, and given over for a prey to the Enemy and Avenger. We confess, with sorrow and confusion, our long unfruitfulness under the means of grace, grace, the light of thy gospel, and the many wonderful deliverances of this Church and State, which thou in thy great goodness hast vouchsafed unto us. O Lord, shouldest thou enter into judgement with us for the crying sins of this nation, our profaneness and infidelity, heresies and schisms, our inordinate love of pleasures, and other manifold offences, thou mightest justly inflict upon us the severity of thy wrath, and deliver us up to the reproaches and insults of our Enemies: but there is mercy with thee, therefore shalt thou be feared: thou art the Lord God, tender and full of compassion, not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent and live. Look down therefore, we beseech thee, with an eye of pity and loving-kindness upon thy servants, who, with broken and contrite hearts, do here bewail our transgressions and wretchedness. Let our land in this time of trouble still enjoy the light of thy countenance, and the blessings of thy bountiful hand; and so work upon our hearts and minds by the gracious influences of thy Holy Spirit, that being turned from the error of our ways, and created to newness of life, we may walk before thee in all righteousness and holiness in this world, and inherit thine everlasting kingdom in that which is to come, through the merits of Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

¶ Then read to the End of Morning Prayer as usual.

B

The Communion Service,

¶ After the Prayer for the King [Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting] shall be read the Two Collects of the Day, as in the Morning Prayer [O Almighty God, &c. O Lord God, &c.] and then shall follow.

The Epistle. 1 Peter Chap. II. Ver. 11, to Ver. 18.

DEARLY beloved, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may, by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the King as supreme; or unto Governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King.

The Gospel. St. Luke XIII. Ver. 1, to 6.

TH E R E were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered these things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

¶ Then shall follow the Nicene Creed: and after that the Sermon.

After the Prayer [for the whole state of Christ's Church] the following shall be used.

¶ A Prayer for this Church and Kingdom.

O Blessed Lord, who hast manifested thine abundant favour to these realms, in thy marvellous protection of our religion, laws, and liberties, from the secret conspiracies, and open attempts of our enemies ; We beseech thee to preserve evermore in our minds, such a grateful sense of these thine invaluable mercies, that by our exemplary and religious use of them, and happy improvements under them, to thy honour and service, we may be accounted worthy of the continuance of thy blessings to us and our posterity. Take away from us, O Lord, all hardness of heart, all neglect of thine ordinances, and contempt of thy word ; and endue us with a spirit of piety and devotion, a spirit of justice and temperance, of humility and charity, and of all other graces, which adorn the Christian profession ; that so thy dreadful displeasure and judgements may be ever averted from us, and iniquity not become our ruin. Be thou pleased also with thine especial favour to guard and prosper our gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, with all the Royal Family. Be thou to Him, O Lord, an helmet of Salvation against His enemies that delight in war. Do thou, we pray thee, frustrate their wicked designs, defeat their stratagems, and so put them to flight and confusion before His face, that the terror of His arms may add dignity and lustre to His Crown, and bring safety, joy, and happiness to Himself and His kingdoms. Grant this, O merciful Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer

¶ A Prayer for Unity.

O GOD, who hast taught us in thy holy Word, to increase and abound in love one towards another, put away from us, we beseech thee, all bitterness and wrath, and evil-speaking and envy, that our hearts may be firmly knit together in mutual affection, in zeal for our religion and laws, in dutiful obedience to the King, and all who are in authority under him; that as there is but one body and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one faith, one God and Father of us all, so we may henceforth be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for our Enemies.

O BLESSED Lord, who hast commanded us by thy beloved Son to love our Enemies, and to extend our charity in praying even for those, who despitefully use us, give grace, we beseech thee, to our unhappy fellow-subjects in America, that seeing and confessing the error of their ways, and having a due sense of their ingratitude for the many blessings of thy Providence, preserved to them by the indulgent care and protection of these kingdoms, they may again return to their duty, and make themselves worthy of thy pardon and forgiveness: Grant us in the mean time not only strength and courage to withstand them, but charity to forgive and pity them, to shew a willingness to receive them again as friends and brethren, upon just and reasonable terms, and to treat them with mercy and kindness, for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Son's Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant, that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing:

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.
